"Outstanding. Juicy, massive, well constructed. Plush and velvety with black fruit and mocha"

93 Points "The 2009 Cabernet Sauvignon 'Segassia Vineyard' boasts a serious core of blue and black fruit, cinnamon, cloves, licorice and menthol. The 2009 Segassia is one of the better wines of the vintage."

- Antonio Galloni, Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate

2008 Segassia Vineyard Cabernet

2008 HALL "Segassia Vineyard" Mount Veeder Cabernet Sauvignon

95-97 Points "Full-throttle Cabernet flavors, loads of blue and black fruits, some subtle background oak, full-bodied mouthfeel, as well as stunning concentration and richness."

-Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate

93 Points "As good as the 2007, Hall's '08 Segassia is vastly rich in sweet, pure blackberry and cherry fruit flavors. New oak, to the tune of 85%, adds important notes of sweet caramel and buttered toast. This is not your typical Mount Veeder Cab, but much softer and riper than you might expect." -Steve Heimoff, Wine Enthusiast

2007 Segassia Vineyard Cabernet

2007 HALL "Segassia Vineyard" Mount Veeder Cabernet Sauvignon

95 Points -James Laube, Wine Spectator “An amazingly rich and powerful young Cabernet, with a sense of elegance and finesse. A full-blown wine, with tiers of currant, raspberry, espresso, mocha, mineral and black licorice. For all its power and thrust, this offers an air of refinement and detail. Drink now through 2023.

93 Points -Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate

“There is something about the fruit from this area that tastes like blood of the vine. Blueberry pie notes intermixed with jammy black raspberries, cassis, graphite, and acacia flowers jump from the glass of this impressively constituted, rich, full-bodied 2007.”

93 Points -Steve Heimoff, Wine Enthusiast
